

Final Project prototype

Asset Tracking

Product : A web application to keep track of the company assets, like Laptops, Stationary computers, phones and so on.

Target Audience: The web application is aimed at big companies which have international branches.

Info About App-Project :

This project is the start of an Asset Tracking database to keep track of the company assets. All assets have an end of life for example 3 years or 5 years depend on type of item. The company can have branches or offices in different countries. In each office should be able to keep track of assets which belongs to the office and the head office should be able to keep track of assets in every offices.

Project Scope :

- The head office should be able to handle FULL CRUD for the whole data.
- The head office should be able to keep track of every asset in every office.
- Each branch should be able to keep track and to handle FULL CRUD of data just within their own office.
- The application will have some reporting features.
- In some report should show be able to show currency in the country that the office located.

System : The application will be developed by using MVC

[illegible]